

I would not pay for satellite radio if I could get the same music, sports, entertainment, and news elsewhere. Do not take away the choice of people who want access to quality information and entertainment where and when they want it from anywhere.